Action-Reaction

Name: _____

The way a character reacts to something tells us a lot about what kind of person he or she is. As you read Part Four, look closely to see how Jack reacts to the following events. Record his reactions, and write about what you can infer about Jack from his reactions.

Event  Jack's Reaction  This Tells Me...

Mr. Tushman asks Jack to be part of August's "welcoming committee".
pg. 134-141

Jack realizes why August is ignoring him.
pg. 151-167

Julian calls August a freak.
pg. 154

Jack finds out about Julian's plan to take all of his friends away.
pg. 170-176

Pros & Cons

Reread pg 208-210

August and Jack are receiving rude notes from Julian and his friends. Should August tell the principal about these notes? What do you think?

Pros

August should tell about the notes because...

Cons

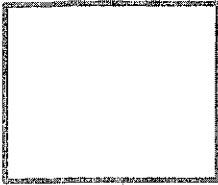

August shouldn't tell about the notes because...

Decision Time!

My Animal Self-Portrait

Pg 284 - 287

August represents himself as a duck because he thinks he looks like a duck! What animal would you choose to represent you and why? Draw your self-portrait below, as an animal! Then write about why that animal best represents you.
